

ENT Blaz

Dave Pearce, Steve Goldberger, David Norris

& Rob Sagar are Blazin' Saddles whose high-energy country sound has been likened to "Hank Williams in a punky mood" (Toronto Star). They're at cozy Shuffle Bar on Kingston Road at Warden tonight.

THE TORONTO STAR Thursday, May 8, 1997
Club Crawl

LENNY STOUTE

Bluegrass and bent country rockers Blazin' Saddles return to the Beaches home turf for a rare unplugged show Saturday. The gig at The Glenevis Inn (2282 Queen St.E.) marks the debut of new vocalist Igor Romanyk (not formerly a member of The Polka Kings).

By Phil Johns
New Town Cr

Blazin' S groups that a tion.

The po country-blues out pure cour right out of N rendering o favourite, For Whatever one of Blazi being able to

That's a bers Dave Pea and Bob Signa drummer Dav from the wild

Adding lately has I Romaniuk, al mer Toronto who lives ap t eclectic musi and theatre, or latter from Hammer.

Pearce a 18-year-old te

THE TORONTO STAR Thursday, September 21, 1995
atch

If you like yer roots raw, Dawn Duvall and Blazin' Saddles are spinning out same at The Shuffle Bar & Grill, 1243 Kingston Rd., all weekend. Duvall, lead vocalist with blues band Blue Willow, should have an interesting time matching up with Blazin' Saddles high energy assault on bluegrass and country.

Club Crawl

LENNY STOUTE

THE TORONTO STAR Thursday, June 5, 1997

GET RIGHT WITH: Sister Cowpie Friday at The Black Swan, Blazin' Saddles Saturday at Scratch Daniels.

NOW NOVEMBER

(2
Ha
De