

...ing up with Blazin' Saddles high energy assault on bluegrass and country.

20
AUGUST 31

If this pic of Blazin' Saddles bassist Steve Goldberger and guitarist/banjo whiz Dave Pearce looks familiar it's because we used it last issue when the band was slated to play Glenevis Inn on Queen E. in the Beaches. They ended up not appearing due to a scheduling foul-up, but we're assured they'll be there tonight. Next Friday they're at nearby The Shuffle on Kingston Rd. at Warden.

Club Crawl

LENNY STOLTE

THE TORONTO STAR Thursday, June 5, 1997

GET RIGHT WITH: Sister Cowple Friday at The Black Swan, Blazin' Saddles Saturday at Scratch Daniels.

18-year-old teen buddies when they perform

Freebie 2: Blazin'
 (2277 Kingston Rd.), sca
 Hank-Williams-in-a-punky Doors open at 8 for three

NOW NOVEMBER 17-23, 1994

concert CALENDAR

Local bluegrass, blues, jazz, R&B and rock players mold their diverse influences in Blazing Saddles, playing dates around town including Friday and Saturday (November 18 and 19) at Quigley's (2232 Queen East) and Saturday, December 10, at the Winchester Arms, Kingston Road and Victoria Park.