

Black Creek Wins

1975 Genie Award At Niagara

NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE, Ont.: Bluegrass act, Black Creek, carried off the Etrog Award for the "Best Original Musical Score" for the film "Lions For Breakfast," at the 1975 Canadian Film Awards here.

The score, titled "Bright Side of Tomorrow," was issued as a single by RCA earlier this year and won considerable interest nationally.

The score contains Black Creeks recent RCA single, "Bright Side of Tomorrow," co-written by the group's leader, Mark Haines, and Production work on the record version was handled by former Bells member, Cliff Edwards.

The combo holds Jayce Ford, Steve Goldberger, Mark Haines and David Pearce on drums, bass, fiddle and guitar, and banjo, respectively.

The group has made a number of appearances in Toronto, including a week at the Horseshoe Tavern, and is set for an appearance on the Ronnie Prophet national CTV show, "Grand Old Country," in the new year.
