clueless

lyrics by steve goldberger & dory karr music by steve goldberger you can be so insecure, what's going on with you? why do you resent the truth, you can't see my point of view everything looks easy, if it's work then there's something wrong you never learned that talent is boundless and discipline is strong you're so clueless, you're so clueless you don't know what's going on you don't seem to understand why good friends are all gone maybe you expect too much though they've backed you all along they've all given up on you because you never seem to learn how to bear the honest truth when it's all that you deserve maybe we will love again and forget it all in time oh but baby that could never happen you've gone and crossed the line i was never on your "A" list baby i was always left behind but it doesn't matter anymore because now i know that you are so damn clueless

irish tune

lyrics & music by steve goldberger it was late last night and i heard the wind blow and the sound bought back memories of you we'd share a glass of merlot in the fresh fallen snow and i would sing you a sweet irish tune you would sit by the fire with your face all aglow sometimes it would shine like the moon play it soft play it slow it was so long ago you'd say sing me a sweet irish tune but years have passed by and i'm all alone and you're just a fond fading memory so i'll sing you the song that i sang way back then when our love was like a sad irish tune

new year's revolution lyrics by steve goldberger music by steve goldberger & eric mahar it's the first day of the new year and i ain't got no resolutions to make me a better man i don't want no yoga classes or trendy tai chi meditation don't have any strategies or goals for self improvement i'm gonna find my balance on my own gonna have some fun and start a new year's revolution don't have any reasons to learn a new language i'm having enough trouble as it is with one that i know don't need to learn to cook or dance my moves just suit me fine don't need a diet or detox to survive just being with you keeps me strong and alive i can speak my mind or be a fool without fear of retribution

don't have any strategies or goals for self improvement
ain't got no goals for self improvement i'm gonna fight my demons on my own
